2015-02 Senior Software Engineer
~ Ocado Technology, Hatfield, United Kingdom

I'm working in an agile team creating microservices providing availability of products and allowing to allocate products for customers. Services are designed to be highly available (akka cluster, AWS, blue-green deployment), highly responsible (actor model) and low latency (in-memory cache with akka sharding). Services are based on CQRS and eventsourcing.

I've worked on replatforming existing order management services to cloud based microservices.
